Paul Bonner is one of the finest fantasy illustrator around. This book is a collection of over 150 paintings he has created for many big name clients, namely Games Workshop, Mutant Chronicles, Fasa, Riot Minds and Rackham. I love his style of mixing stylized creatures, extreme details and a little quirkiness into all his paintings.

With care bordering on affection, mycologist Paul Stamets hoists up an enormous conk of agarikon to better show it off. The large, gnarled, woody-looking layered mushroom, more specifically the polypore Fomitopsis officinalis, is about the size of a toddler's torso.. Its dull outward appearance belies the invaluable medical properties agarikon — and a host of other fungi — might possess ...
